

BLG rap music team (5 teenage boys) amazed the audience gathered In the barn. Despite the technical problems, concert went very well – the audience willing to dance during the whole performance proved its tremendous energy. Guys sang about the reason why they create music and describe their life In Warmia that inspires them.