

After the performance Pozor už nemožem I had short conversation with Wiktor Malinowski. The artist told me, that he planned to prepare a philosophical performance, set on dimmed scene. However, during the preparation of the scenery he noticed, that he can achieve better effect by using humorous form. It opens the performance for wider audience.