

The concert of Saba and Mietek Litwiński was spectacular! Gentle and meaningful compositions, the truth in every sound – the beauty of their music is really hard to describe. Despite the fact that I perfectly understand the meaning of the harmonious relation between the sun and the moon, I will remember this concert rather like a 'lunasolo' – the elements of this beautiful duo are extremely coherent, barely possible to separate from each other.

