

The performance of Inna Szkoła Teatralna consists of three parts that are connected by the leitmotiv that refers to the relation between the society and an individual. The artists working with the real stories, ask about the morality, truth, humanity in times of crisis. Narration of the performance consists of three elements : language, gesture and music. Thanks to this structure our attentive audience look for the main answers inside themselves.