

We spent our Friday afternoon, taking part in „Playground for children and adults” performance, organized in the center of the village. It was an action, connecting the generations and different environments. We could take a part in recycling parade and children’s circus, consisting of kids from one-week workshops. The culmination was the game, prepared by “Performeria Warszawa”. This amazing fun was a great possibility to built special social relation between local inhabitants.

