

Excellent performance, which is not infantile story about disability. Actors underlined lameness of system, which doesn't accept the fact, that some part of society is richer in one chromosome. Thanks to this performance spectators had the possibility to see what are the problems of those excluded, who are the part of our society that shouldn't be ignored.