

Second day of the festival was crowned with energetic “train” accompanied with music. So-called “dance course” started suddenly, when on the crowded by people barn-floor came quartet consisted of accordion, drum, violin and clarinet. The space, in which all participants were dancing, was getting bigger and bigger...