

What is behind this secret name? This is the way of marking those products, which were produced by workers employed on fair rules, so that they are not exploited, provided with insurance and proper salary. In our festival canteen you can taste Fair Trade coffee and tea. Support for Fair Trade can help to change habits of consumer in Poland. In other countries such products are common, accessible and popular. Remember that, by choosing these products, you are giving a chance for other people to work in conditions that each person in the world has right to.

If you are keen to learn more check the website www.fairtrade.org.pl. On 26 of July, we invite to try these sorts of coffee and tea in our festival canteen from 4 p.m.
