Magda Bartnik

The text is a poetic description of the author's experiences during the caroling expedition in Nowica and in Stabieńszczyzna. For her it was an experience of metamorphosis, initiation, crossing the boundaries. It tells a story about crossing the thresholds of many houses, about the reactions of hosts to their guests, the carol-performers. The caroling at Ola and Duszan's is a culmination. When the soul of Herod transpires into a cat. Iza and Szymon – a feast! We are in a house where a baby is awaited!